

What to do when an active letter carrier dies...

- ✓ Notify employee's immediate supervisor/postmaster.
- ✓ Notify the secretary-treasurer of the National Rural Letter Carriers' Association and the state secretary of the state RLCA where the deceased was a member. Give the Social Security number of the deceased employee.
- ✓ If the deceased employee was in receipt of a benefit payment from the U.S. Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA), you may notify the VA by calling (800) 827-1000. Spouses may also be entitled to VA death benefits and assistance.
- ✓ Notify local banks and/or postal credit unions.
- ✓ Notify the Social Security Administration at the local office.
- ✓ Contact insurance companies for policies on life (if Provident Guild, write Secretary-Treasurer, PO Box 105, Minster, OH 45865-0105; if Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance, contact local personnel office; if NRLCA Life Insurance, contact 1630 Duke St., Alexandria, VA 22314-3467), hospitalization (if NRLCA, write Rural Carrier Benefit Plan, 1630 Duke St., Alexandria, VA 22314-3467), house and automobile (if GMAC Insurance Company, contact P.O. Box 66937, St. Louis, MO 63166-6937; or your local insurance carrier).
- ✓ Notify the Internal Revenue Service and state income tax department.
- ✓ Check for safety deposit box and instructions.
- ✓ Change name on all important papers to surviving party's name.
- ✓ Notify supervisor/postmaster/employees of the time and place of memorial service.
- ✓ Have the funeral director obtain enough death certificates for your needs. He/she can advise how many.
- ✓ Give supervisor/postmaster any items belonging to the Postal Service.
- ✓ Papers to fill out (available in some post offices from personnel section or postmaster):
 - SF 2800 Application for Death Benefits
 - SF 1153 Claim of Designated Beneficiary for Unpaid Compensation
 - SF 155 Claim for Unpaid Compensation, No Designated Beneficiary
 - FE 6 Claim for Benefits, Federal Employees Group Life Insurance
- ✓ Check with personnel section or postmaster for annuity for yourself and any minor children.
- ✓ If a previous marriage, secure divorce papers.
- ✓ If a present marriage, secure marriage license.
- ✓ If the cause of death is due to a job-related injury, the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) will pay up to $1,000 in burial expenses, minus any amount the VA pays.
- ✓ In the case of job-related death, the survivor may also apply for an annuity from the OWCP. He/she may then choose the higher amount, but there are precautions that you need to discuss with personnel or the union on this subject.
- ✓ As a surviving spouse, you are eligible to continue receiving the NRLCA magazine. Contact your state secretary to see if the state pays for subscriptions. If it does not, you can mail a check for $20 to the NRLCA to continue receiving the magazine.

Note: A will should be seriously considered. If there is no will, an executor must be named and an expensive court action could result.

What to do when a retired letter carrier dies...

The survivor should notify:
